

NAVAL LEADERSHIP IN THE AGE OF SAIL (1750 -1840)

Conference 2 and 3 December 2011
with the inaugural Colin White Memorial Lecture at the National Museum of the Royal Navy, Portsmouth

Sponsored by

Society for Nautical Research, United Kingdom
The National Museum of the Royal Navy, United Kingdom
The 1805 Club, United Kingdom
La Sorbonne et Musée national de la Marine, France
Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas, Spain
The Gunroom, HMS Surprise

THIS conference launches an interdisciplinary, international series intended to enhance understanding of the concept of leadership in a naval context, in preparation for the publication of a comparative study of leadership.

The event in Portsmouth will include the first lecture of a series to be given annually commemorating the life and celebrating the professional work of the late Dr Colin White, the Nelsonian historian.

Confirmed speakers:

Professor Emeritus Michael Duffy; Dr Simon Surreaux ; Professor Richard Harding; Dr Agustín Rodríguez González;
Professeur Olivier Chaline; Dr Agustín Guimerá Ravina;
Amiral Rémi Monaque; Justin Reay; Dr Carlos Alfaro Zaforteza;
Professor Andrew Lambert; Peter Warwick

Tickets:

Conference – Friday and/or Saturday : £25 (each day)
Lunch : £15 (each day) Dinner on Friday evening : £50

Booking via:

Lynn Wearn, National Museum of the Royal Navy, at :
lynn.wearn@nmrn.org.uk | or by telephone: 02392 727562